

From Editor's Desk

Dear Colleagues,

Happy New Year, 2020

I am glad to present before you the fourth issue of the Journal of Indian Library Association (JILA) of December, 2019. Once again I thank and congratulate the members of Editorial Board for their cooperation in enhancing the standard of JILA. I know that the members of ILA are expecting more quality articles to be published in JILA, for which I request the contributors to submit the original articles without any errors including grammar.

The fourth issue of JILA contains a blend of both the theoretical and practical aspects of LIS. I hope such articles will help LIS professionals to adopt different skills and techniques in their day to day activities.

The present issue contains eight articles viz. Recouping the missing web citations in Library Hi-Tech Journal by D. Vinay Kumar and B.T. Sampath Kumar / Engineering Institutions in India: An Analytical study of Ranking conducted by National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) by U. Nagalingam / Competencies on Web 2.0 skills of LIS professionals working in Central University Libraries of South India: A study by S. Ajeemsha and M. Madhusudhan / Collaborative Research in University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, INDIA by Deepthi and P.G. Tadasad / Towards Re-examining the norms and standards of AICTE with Special Reference to Library by Mohan R. Kherde and Milind B. Anasane / Application of Bibliometric Laws in Doctoral Theses of Library and Information Science submitted to the Universities of Northeast India by S. Larempuii, R.K. Ngurtinkhuma and R.N. Mishra / Awareness and use of e-resources among the users of Library of Punjabi University Patiala: A case study by Kuldeep Singh and Use of Electronic Information Resources and services by the Research scholars in the University of Mysore Fahimeh Ahmadianyazdi and M. Chandrashekara.
